

Proliferation and Strategic Trade Control Awareness Seminar For Cambodian Officials

Organized by the Middlebury Institute's James Martin Center for Nonproliferation Studies
(CNS) and University at Albany, SUNY's Center for Policy Research (CPR)

December 3-4, 2015
At the Raffles Hotel Le Royal, Phnom Penh

Thursday, December 3, 2015

- 09:00 – 09:30 Opening remarks by H.E. Chhuon Chanthan, Vice President of Secretariat of the National Counter-Terrorism Committee and the Ambassador, William A. Heidt, US Embassy Phnom Penh
- 09:30 – 09:45 Seminar Introduction and Overview
- 09:45 – 10:45 Session 1: Overview of Global WMD Challenges
[Presentation: Stephanie Lieggi, CNS]
- 11:00 – 12:00 Session 2: Dual-Use Dilemma: Commercial Items with WMD and Military Applications [Presentation: Jay Nash, CPR]
- 13:15 – 14:15 Session 3: Proliferation Networks and Mechanics
[Presentation: Stephanie Lieggi, CNS]
- 14:15 – 15:15 Session 4: International and Regional Response to Proliferation
[Presentation: Stephanie Lieggi, CNS]
- 15:30 – 17:00 Session 5: Spot the Proliferation Threat and Path Group Exercise
[Facilitator: Jay Nash, CPR]

Friday, December 4, 2015

- 09:00 – 10:15 Session 6: National Strategic Trade Control Systems
[Presentation: Jay Nash, CPR]
- 10:30 – 11:45 Session 7: Controlling Transactions and Activities Beyond Export and Import of Listed Items
[Presentation: Jay Nash, CPR, with George Tan & Mohamed Shahabar (Guest Speakers)]

- 13:00 – 14:00      Session 8: Secure Trade and Maritime Security
[Presentations: Stephanie Lieggi, CNS & Johnny Xie (Guest Speaker)]
- 14:15 – 16:30      Session 9: Panel on Strategic Trade Controls and Economic Development: Discussing the Experience of Singapore, China and Malaysia
[Panelists: George Tan; Mohamed Shahabar; Johnny Xie]
- 16:30 – 17:00      Closing Remarks and Awarding of Certificates